

Friends of the Ullswater Way

Understanding Ullswater Evening Talks 2019

Date + Time	Location	Theme	Speaker
Thurs April 4th 7.30. pm	Parkin Memorial Hall, Pooley Bridge	Traditional Buildings of Cumbria	June Hill Chair, Cumbria Vernacular Buildings Group
Thurs May 2nd 7.30 pm	YHA Patterdale	Celebrating Local Heritage: Creating a Glenridding Heritage Centre	Tim Clarke Chair, Friends of the Ullswater Way (FOUW)
Thurs June 6th 7.30 pm	Watermillock Village Hall	6 Writers in Martindale A Shepherd's Guide, Three Poets, a Novelist & a 'Traveller, Orientalist and Man of Letters'	Jane Brimmer Martindale Resident
Thurs July 4th 7.30 pm	Parkin Memorial Hall, Pooley Bridge	Muskets or Rifles? A Patterdale Militia 1803-1812	Janet Wedgwood FOUW Council Member
Thurs Aug 1st 7.30 pm	Glenridding Village Hall	East of Eden: Monumental Rock Art in Cumbria	Kate Sharpe Research Associate, Durham University
Thurs Sept 5th 7.30 pm	Glenridding Village Hall	Red Squirrel ecology and their status in the Ullswater Valley	Ian Jack Trustee, Penrith and District Red Squirrel Group
Tues Sept 24th 7.30 pm	Watermillock Village Hall	The Lake was saved - the story of Lord Birkett and the Ullswater Preservation Society	Miles MacInnes Chair, Ullswater Preservation Society, former Chair of FOUW
Thurs Sept 26th 7.30 pm	Watermillock Village Hall	Ullswater Landscapes - where to go for those great photos ...?	Val Corbett Photographer
Thurs Oct 3rd 7.30 pm	Watermillock Village Hall	I Vow to thee My Country... Sir Cecil Spring Rice - Ullswater's supreme diplomat and poet	Gordon Lightburn Founder Member of FOUW
Thurs Nov 7th 7.30 pm	Glenridding Village Hall	The multiple challenges of managing recreation and biodiversity in a working landscape	Pete Barron Glenridding Common Land Manager, John Muir Trust

Please block these dates in your diary. There are talks on the first Thursday of each month + two additional talks during the Ullswater Walking Festival in September.

Talks are FREE. Voluntary contributions will be welcome to cover costs.
Light refreshments will be available (soft drinks, beer, wine).